DETAILED ACTION

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,3 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP 4-55770. Regarding claims 1 and 7, JP 4-55770 discloses a connector housing comprising a plurality of terminal-receiving chambers 2 for receiving a metal terminal 7, wherein a mark 15 is provided on an outer surface of the connector housing corresponding to each terminal-receiving chamber, and indicates a specified metal terminal to be received by said corresponding terminal-receiving chamber.

Regarding claim 3, the terminal-receiving chamber is formed with a plurality of partition walls, the opening of the terminal-receiving chamber is surrounded with the plurality of partition walls, and the mark is provided on an end "near" the opening of an inner surface of the terminal-receiving chamber.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2,8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 4-55770 in view of Endo et al. 5,211,583. JP 4-55770 discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for the mark being provided on a surface of one of the partition walls surrounding the opening of the chamber, said surface being flush with the opening.

However, Endo et al. disclose in fig. 2 a connector housing comprising a plurality of chambers 5 for receiving terminal, wherein a mark 13 is provided on an outer surface of the connector housing corresponding to each terminal-receiving chamber said surface being flush with the opening. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to modify the connector housing of JP 4-55770 by providing the mark on a surface of one of the partition walls surrounding the opening of the chamber wherein the surface is flush with the opening as taught by Endo et al. as a distinct indicia.

Claims 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 4-55770. Regarding the method steps incorporated in claims 4-6, the method of making the marks does not differentiate from the finished product and would have been an obvious choice to one of ordinary skill. The method of forming a device is not germane to the issues of patentability of the device itself. Therefore, this limitation has been given little patentable weight.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
